WHEN FLOWERS MATTER

Starting from a conversation, not a catalogue, share your ideas for flowers to suit the person whose life you are celebrating.

"Our mother was a country girl, so the beautiful and original mix of wild flowers and roses were everything we could have wished for and looked so natural.

We met with Carole and she really listened to what we wanted, ensuring a lovely selection of scented roses and stocks and even including a small section of wild apples. This made our flowers truly wonderful to us and reflected our mother perfectly. It was a difficult day, but these flowers lifted our hearts."

HOW I WORK

Working from my home studio, I grow many of my own flowers and specialise in using seasonal ingredients wherever possible. I'm happy to meet you to discuss flowers, but visits are by appointment only as I'm often out on deliveries or working at the plot.

I can use favourite colours, and, if you live locally, pick flowers from a well-loved garden. I always aim to help you find that special ingredient that will make the flowers reflect a life.

Deliveries

I deliver to your chosen undertaker or to your home, within 5 miles of Birmingham B30. You are welcome to collect flowers from me if you prefer, or if you live outside this delivery zone.

Deliveries up to 3 miles £6.75

Deliveries up to 5 miles £15.00

TYPES OF ARRANGEMENT

Because flowers change every week, every arrangement I make is a one-off. However, I hope this guide will give you ideas about styles of arrangement and of what I do. You can see more examples of my flowers on the funeral gallery page of my website. www.tuckshopflowers.com

Flowers should be special so if there is something you'd like which you can't find here, please don't hesitate to contact me to discuss possibilities. I love developing new ideas and find that the loveliest funeral flowers are often created this way.
